Helpful Tips for the New Pet Parents

- ♥ Be prepared to bring your new pet home, for a dog you will need a collar and leash, for a cat you will need a litter box and cat litter, and for either you will need food and water bowls, and of course, some toys. And don't forget to order an identification tag right away.
- ♥ Cat's value cleanliness, so it is best to clean their litter box daily to make sure it is up to your new kitties standards.
- ♥ Dogs need order; they are pack animals, so establish yourself as the "pack leader".
- ♥ Assume your new dog is not house trained, and work from there. Read over house training information. Be consistent, and maintain a routine.
- ♥ Dogs need an active life so you should plan plenty of exercise and game time for your pet.
- ♥ Finally, be reasonable in your expectations. Life with you is a different experience for your new companion, so give him or her time to adjust. You'll soon find out that you've make a friend for life.
- ♥ Humane Society of the US has a website – "Pets for Life" with lots of useful information for pet owners.
- ♥ Pet Smart offers obedience classes with discounts For adopters that you may want to take advantage of. This may make life with your new pet even more enjoyable.
